Talked With Chief of the Insurgents.

ZAMBOANGO ANXIOUS TO RECEIVE U. S. MISSION.

There Is a Provision, However, On Condition of Withdrawal, Should Aguinaldo Succeed in Luzon—Proposition Will Not Be Entertained—Dato Give Adhesion and Desire to Raise the Stars and Stripes in Preference to the Spanish Flag—To Establish Customs Under Protocol of '85.

Washington, Sept. 25.—[Special]—Gen. Otis cables the following to the war department:

"Col. Bates has returned from Jolo, having placed garrisons at Siahi, Bungam and Tawi Tawi group; one company at each place.

"Bates saw the chief of the insurgents, Zamboango, who is still anxious to receive the United States mission on condition of withdrawal, should Aguinaldo succeed in Luzon. The proposition will not be entertained.

"Zamboango is having more trouble with Dato in that vicinity, who have raised the United States flag. Dato Cagayan, Sulu Island, gave adhesion and desired to raise the American flag, instead of the Spanish flag on the island.

"They are ready to give six months' notice in order to establish in the archipelago the customs and regulations under the protocol between Spain, Germany and Great Britain in eighty-five." Bates report by mail.

LOPEZ SURRENDERS TO BYRNE

Conference with the Chief Insurgent Proved a Failure.

Washington, Sept. 25.—[Special]—The following cablegram from General Otis is given out:

"General Hughes of Iloilo, reports that General Lopez and sixty-four armed men have surrendered to Byrne at Castellano, Negros. The election in the island occurs October 2. He sought a conference with the chief insurgent at Panay, but he wanted to know what promises could be given them in case of formal submission. Being told that no arrangements were possible until surrender was made, the force disbanded."

Manila, Sept. 25.—Admiral Watson's naval expedition to Subig bay returned to Cavite Sunday. The admiral says that all went well with the expedition, which consisted of the cruiser Charleston, the monitor Monterey, the gunboat Concord and the supply ship Zafiro. Saturday these ships bombarded Olango, on Subig bay, and then landed a strong force of marines. The insurgent fortifications were destroyed, and a six-inch gun was captured. The expedition left Manila bay a week ago, and had considerable difficulty in locating the insurgent battery. The garrison fled during the bombardment, so that the marines experienced no opposition.

Two insurgent officers and sixty-four armed men have surrendered to Capt. Byrne in the island of Negros.

One American Wounded

Manila, Sept. 25.—The United States cruiser Charleston, the monitor Monterey, the gunboat Concord and the supply ship Zafiro Sunday morning attacked Olango, on Subig bay. The warships, after briskly bombarding Olango, landed 250 sailors, who destroyed the insurgent position. One American wounded.

The expedition left Cavite Sept. 18 and proceeded to Subig bay to destroy an insurgent cannon there. Owing to the bad weather the operation was postponed until Saturday, when the warships for three hours bombarded the town of Olango and the intrenchments where the gun was situated.

While waiting in Subig bay for better weather the Americans despatched Filipino re-enforcements moving toward Olango. At 6:40 a. m. Saturday the Monterey began the advance upon the town, which was about three miles east of the monitor's anchorage.

The Charleston, Concord and Zafiro followed. At 7:25 the Monterey opened fire with her secondary and main batteries, the Charleston and Concord joining immediately. At 7:38 the insurgent cannon answered, the first shot passing close to the Monterey's smokestack. The gun was fired twice only.

Bombarding by the Americans then became general. At 9:30 o'clock the Monterey advanced to a range of 600 yards, using her main battery. Two hundred and fifty men were landed about 800 yards east of the cannon at 11 o'clock under a severe shore Mauter fire. The men from the Charleston were the first to reach the beach, but the Concord's men were the first, at the gun, which they reached at 11:10 o'clock. The cannon was found to be a 16-centimeter Krupp gun, presumably obtained from the Spaniards.

Meanwhile the warships continued to shell the shelving beach on the east and west side to silence the insurgent fire upon the sailors from the trenches skirting the beach. The cannon was destroyed by gun cotton. The Americans then returned to the boats, the firing inland being kept up to protect embarkation. The Concord's men were the last to reach the shore, and the warships were reached at 11:50 o'clock. Cadet Brinzer, with the Concord's launch, armed with a Gatling, did excellent work on the left of the landing party. Capt. Myers of the marines captured a mizzie-loading field piece. Lieut. McDonald was in command of the landing party and the movement was splendidly executed and controlled.

The numbers of the Filipinos there could not be ascertained and no dead were seen. The Monterey fired for four hours, twenty-one shots from her ten-inch guns and seventeen from her twelve-inch guns. The town, which was riddled with shells, took fire at several points.

SAYS OTIS IS TO STAY WHERE HE IS.

Member of Cabinet Declares There Is No Likelihood of a Change.

Washington, Sept. 25.—The president has decided to retain Gen. Otis in command in the Philippines. A member of the cabinet said Saturday that there was not the slightest possibility that the president would supersede him or curtail his duties. The same cabinet member added that Gen. Miles could go to the Philippines if he desired. The general stated some time ago that he was anxious to go, but has not communicated his wishes to the president. The same authority said that the commanding general could arrange his own plans, and while the president did not propose to order him to the Philippines, he would not interfere if he decided to go.

Rebels Short of Ammunition

London, Sept. 25.—Commenting on the situation in the Philippines, the Post says: "The insurgents must soon exhaust their supply of ammunition. 'Then,' it says, 'will come a period when civil government may be put in use. By this means, and the gradual establishment of local institutions, the United States will be able to bring the islands under control.'"

Cubans and Porto Ricans

One result of the provisional state of things now existing in Cuba is that Cubans who travel abroad are without any definite government protection. They are no longer subjects of Spain and they are not citizens of the United States. Secretary Hay has issued instructions under which they will be given the good offices of American representatives abroad, in case of need, but this is by way of friendly intervention rather than official protection. Porto Ricans, however, will be given protection in all matters in which American citizens would be entitled to it; but they will be registered at the consulates as native Porto Ricans and not as citizens of the United States.

His Discerning Comment

"What's the piece they are playing?" said the man with a very large neck. The lady with him pointed to the program. "Fantasie in A minor," he said, with a confident and critical air. "Well, it does beat everything what queer products Asia Minor turns out, doesn't it? But they ought to put a period after that 'A.'"—Washington Star.

Steel Bird's Nest

A steel bird's nest was recently acquired by the museum of Soleure, in Switzerland. Soleure has an extensive watch and clock factory, and the metal filings are continually being swept into the roads with the waste from the workshops. Of these, two wagtails built a nest, which was secured after their brood had flown.

One of his fingers is badly lacerated. He got it into Fresh's mouth in trying to gag him and the iceman chewed it vigorously. The cripple is a small man and his two companions are medium sized. The iceman put up a vigorous fight and the highwaymen were frightened away without securing his money.

Man Without Blood

Ashland, Wis. Sept. 25.—August Swanson of this city, has been sick for several weeks with what at first seemed to be rheumatism, but as the case progressed gangrene of the right foot set in a few days ago when he was removed to Dodd's hospital, where a diagnosis was made and Saturday the right leg was amputated at the thigh. On examination the arteries were found to be solid cords, having become filled with products of inflammation, and there was no bleeding when the operation was performed. The blood vessels had not been performing their functions so far as Swanson's leg was concerned, and even when the leg was cut off next to the thigh not a drop of blood came. The case is a very rare one.

Neillsville, Wis. Sept. 25.—E. T. Ring, an early settler and well known character in western Wisconsin, the father of M. C. ### A Remarkable Village

In New Guinea, the village of Tupuselei is most remarkable. The houses are all supported on spiles and stand out in the ocean a considerable distance from shore. This is to protect the villagers from the attacks of the dreaded head-hunters always looking out for victims. Other villages in this queer land are perched up in trees for the same reason.

New Use for Aluminum

With a pencil of aluminum indelible characters can be written or drawn on glass or porcelain, and when treated with hydrochloric acid, the surface covered by the characters becomes etched. When the characters are not etched, but simply burnished, they exactly resemble inlaid silver. This property of aluminum was recently discovered by Mr. Charles Margot of Geneva, Switzerland. It is indispensable first to remove every trace of grease from the surface to be ornamented, by polishing with chalk, else the aluminum will not take hold. Since the effect is only produced on substances containing silicic acid, it has been suggested that an aluminum pencil would be an unerring detector of false diamonds. Magnesium, cadmium and zinc act in a similar manner, but their traces readily oxidize.

India a Vast Treasure House

India is the treasure house of the world. For ages Ceylon and Burma supplied the world with the rarest gems, and the eastern potentates kept the finest for their own use. Of all the jewels the most noted belong to the guicowar of Baroda. They are valued at $15,000,000. His chief diamond necklace contains a stone called the Star of the South, a Brazilian stone of 254 carats, for which $400,000 was paid, the whole necklace being valued at $1,000,000.

Edible Bird's Nests

The nests of the little swift (a kind of swallow), gathered along the rock cliffs with so much difficulty, and yet in such quantities, on account of the Chinese demand, are formed of a salivary secretion which soon becomes firm on exposure to the air. It is a glutinous white substance with little red dots. They are clean, the nests being taken as soon as completed. The little swift, being repeatedly robbed, is at last compelled to eke out its waning supply of secretion with little sticks and grass, and is thus enabled to lay its eggs and hatch its young, as only nests free from foreign material are merchantable.—From "A Sketch of the Philippines" in Self-Culture.

History in Knotted Cords

Tying knots in the handkerchief to jog one's memory had its origin in China thousands of years ago. Before writing was invented in that country, which did not happen until 3,000 B. C., memorable and important events were recorded by long knotted cords. The most ancient history of China is still preserved as told by these knots. When Emperor Tschang Ki invented writing, the entire system of knotting was abandoned. And today the memory knots made by us in handkerchiefs are the only surviving descendants of that ancient and curious custom.

Good Sponges

Although the difference between a good and a bad sponge is very marked, but few people seem able to appreciate it. The first requisite of a good sponge is that it should be dark in color. The beautiful yellow sponges commonly seen in druggists' windows are a delusion and a snare. The natural color is a light to medium brown, and the yellow sponges have been bleached by a vitriol bath, which destroys their elasticity and makes them wear out much sooner.

Cane Umbrellas

The convertible cane-umbrella is a novelty. By unscrewing the top and touching a spring the cover is removed and the stick becomes a stylish cane, while the cover can be carried in a dress-suit case. By reversing the process a sun shade or water shedder is ready for use. Dresden handles for umbrellas and parasols are on the wane, while silver, bejeweled gun metals and elaborately carved woods are appearing in every conceivable design. The cotton umbrella is now a thing of the past.

WAR TENSION IS UNABATED

Preparations For Conflict Being Rushed.

INCREASING ACTIVITY ALONG TRANSVAAL FRONTIERS.

Many Fiercely Fought Between Englishmen and Dutch, Are Taking Place—Cape Town Argus Correspondent.

Narrowly Escapes Being Struck By a Bullet—Friends of the Boers in London Meet With Little Sympathy—Police Intervene at Significant Demonstration.

Cape Town, Sept. 25.—[Special]—The war tension is unabated. Preparations for the conflict which is believed unavoidable before thirty days, are being rushed and there is an increasing activity along the frontiers of Transvaal and Orange Free State.

A correspondent of the Cape Town Argus, while visiting Majuba Hill, where the British suffered disastrous defeats at the hands of the Boers in '81, narrowly escaped being struck by a bullet yesterday.

Many fiercer fights between Englishmen and Dutch are taking place.

London, Sept. 25.—Fifty thousand Londoners at the peace demonstration in Trafalgar square Sunday to a man yelled for war, and it took a hundred mounted police and a battalion of foot to prevent a foretaste of actual hostilities.

The leaders of the peace party only saved their lives by abrupt flight under police escort. The remarkable scene cannot fail to influence the Transvaal negotiations.

Steyn Sticks by the Boers

London, Sept. 25.—The Bloemfontein correspondent of the Manchester Gazette, a pro-Boer organ, says:

"Both President Steyn and Mr. Fischer of the Orange Free State executive inform me that the volksraad is absolutely unanimous that the two republics should stand or fall together."

"President Steyn said: 'Suppose we remained neutral and the Transvaal were conquered. It is not like that we would be long permitted to stand outside British control. Let a rich gold field be discovered, and what would become of us?'"

Attitude of European Powers

A semi-official German note appearing in the Berlin Post is thought here to be issued in the interest of peace. The note is in reply to numerous German newspapers, which persist in advocating the interference of continental powers in the Boer controversy. This, according to the note, would be little short of madness. For Russia to interfere would be out of the question. It would never commit itself to a life-and-death struggle with Great Britain merely for the sake of the Boers. A majority of the French prefer Great Britain's friendship to its enmity. That the South African republic cannot count on Germany giving it assistance should be clear since the foreign policy of Germany is not molded according to the view of sentimentalists and philanthropists, and Germany's interference would endanger rather than serve the cause of peace. The German aim is to localize the coming war, and it gives to the Transvaal the advice without making additional trouble for itself. All European powers are united in the opinion that the Transvaal must not become an object of European strife.

Gordon Highlanders Sail

Bombay, Sept. 25.—The Gordon Highlanders have sailed for South Africa. This famous organization was broken and scattered at Majuba hill during the former war with the Boers, thus placing a blot on their otherwise magnificent record. The regiment expresses the grim determination to make a record in the coming war with the Boers which shall eradicate the stain of their former defeat.

Will Defend Their Kinsmen

Cape Town, Sept. 25.—The blacks of South Africa continue to grow more menacing in their attitude toward the whites. Should the Basutos attack the Orange Free State while the latter is assisting the Transvaal government against the British it is believed that no earthly power could prevent the Dutch of Cape Colony from rushing to the defense of their republican kinsmen against hordes of savages.

Germany Will Not Aid Boers

Berlin, Sept. 25.—Semi-official articles in the newspapers consistently insist that although Germany sympathizes with the Boers this feeling must not be allowed to interfere with or influence the policy of the government, which undoubtedly does not contemplate the slightest interference on behalf of the Transvaal.

Free State Prepares for War

LARGEST STEAMER
EVER CONSTRUCTED
GAZETTE MAN INSPECTS THE OCEANIC.

Left Liverpool, England, On September 6, With Two Thousand Souls On Board—Is Several Feet Longer Than the Great Eastern—Plenty of Cheap Excursions From Glasgow.

From Glasgow, Scotland, you can go in all directions on excursions. The rates for the same are very reasonable. To Liverpool, England, is a fifteen hour ride by boat and for the single trip you can go first cabin for four dollars. This price includes your berth and meals. On one of these boats I left Glasgow at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. After the evening repast I walked to the promenade deck and made the acquaintance of a witty Englishman, who said his name was Walter Crosby and that he resided in Liverpool, but that he had been called to Glasgow on business. In our conversation he asked me if I was not an American. Then he inquired as to what part of the states I resided in and on telling him that I lived in Janesville, Wisconsin, his face brightened and he said: "Janesville, Wisconsin? Eight years ago I made that city my home for several months, while I attended Valentine's School of Telegraphy. I boarded for some time with a family on South Bluff street. From Janesville I went to New York state and from there went to England. I am now working in a Liverpool railroad office." He then asked me if Chief Hogan was still on the police force and if the street car company had managed to make out a paying business. He seemed to be as interested in the welfare of the Bower City as if he were a heavy tax payer there and it was well past midnight when we parted and went to our cabins.

The greater portion of this trip you make on the Irish sea and the water is seldom rough. The boat accommodations are good and the crew and captain obliging and willing to do anything that will add to your comfort. These boats are composed mainly of Scotchmen.

Liverpool is an important shipping port, but in other respects resembles the other large cities of the British Empire. Here you find the average merchant does not open his place of business till nine o'clock in the morning, although he closes at night at an hour that we would call early. The clerks in the stores in England work shorter hours than they do in America, but are poorly paid.

Football, golf and cricket are the favorite games in England and Scotland and it is estimated that a hundred golf clubs have grounds in and about Liverpool. It is a common sight to meet players in full costume going to the depot to board a train to some suburban links.

What brought me to Liverpool more than anything else, was the fact that I could inspect the largest boat in the world, which floating palace has just been completed for the White Star company. Its name is the Oceanic and the sight of this monstrous craft was worth going miles to witness. Imagine this boat taking up the entire breadth of Main street from curb to curb and for length—with the bow resting in front of Lewis Bros. factory, corner of South Second and Main streets, the tip of its stern would block the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets. Last January the shell of this ship was launched in Belfast. The greatest of American hotels could not offer their guests more comfort than is to be found within the iron and steel walls of the Oceanic. Although the date of departure of this boat has not long been known by the public, for the past three weeks you could not obtain a berth in first, second or third cabin for love or money.

On Wednesday, September 6, this boat left her dock at Liverpool with two thousand souls on board, 375 first class, 250 second class, 950 third class, and a crew of 400 all told. Four decks, each eight feet high are provided for the passengers. On the promenade deck are the library and state rooms. The library room is cased in oak with embossed leather on the walls, and the furniture is of mahogany, covered with green plush. The main companion way is finished in oak, the panels of which are beautifully carved. The floor, as in all other parts of the ship, is covered with India rubber tiles, which not only give a noiseless tread, but a firm footing to passengers. The dining saloon is not only comfortable, but a work of art. It is cased in oak, which has been gilded to lead up to the brilliantly-hued dome, in which are represented Great Britain, armed with the trident, and beside her the English lion is couched, with America opposite, grasping the flag of liberty. On one side are the arms of Liverpool with emblems of commerce and on the other are those of New York. The smoking room is also in oak, richly decorated in gold. Some of the state rooms are suites of three rooms, with private bath room attached. Close to each berth is an electric bell, so that in a moment's notice you can call the steward or stewardess. The second class accommodation is arranged on two decks on the after-end of the boat, with smoking-room, library, and writing room for ladies and a dining saloon to seat one hundred and forty-eight passengers at a time. In my opinion, second class on a boat like the Oceanic is fit for a king. In the center of the dining saloon in this second class apartment is a large, handsome dome, which provides, with other ventilators around the sides, a constant current of fresh air, however hot the weather may be. The cabins, which each contain four berths, are carpeted and carefully fitted, with washstands shutting up the same way as those in the first-class cabins, so that they appear to be tiny sideboards. The berths are made with wire mattresses, and the ventilation is perfect. I placed my handkerchief on the grating in front of one of these ventilators, and the wind was so strong that it blew it twenty feet away.

For third class passengers the accommodations are very good. The single men are accommodated in open berths forward, the single women at the after end, in closed rooms, while isolated cabins are provided for married couples and families. Here the steerage or third-class passengers are provided with three wholesome meals each day, served by the same caterer who looks after the first and second saloon passengers. Roughly speaking, between fifty and sixty thousand pieces of linen will be used on this boat in one round trip, all of which will be sent on the Wednesday the boat arrives in Liverpool, to the company's huge laundry, to be washed, and returned the following Monday. Tons of provisions are used, and are taken on board at both American and English ports.

As regards the speed of this monster vessel, the officials are boasting but little. It is said that she will travel at about twenty-one knots an hour. She has been fitted out with triple expansion engines, and the fires will consume about five hundred tons of coal per day, so that three thousand tons of coal must be carried on every outward trip. Special machinery has been provided for hoisting out the life boats, of which there are twenty-four. Numerous ladders are placed around the boat, so that the passengers could in case of emergency, reach the boats rapidly and without confusion. W. W. W.

McVICAR BROS. WIN THE SUIT

Judge Field Holds Mrs. Julia Brittain Responsible For the Bill.

In the action of McVicar Bros. vs. Mrs. Julia Brittain, which was tried in the municipal court Saturday, Judge Field found for the plaintiff. McVicar Bros. were suing to recover pay for work done in the house owned by the defendant, on Park place. Mrs. Brittain, a non-resident, McVicar Bros. garnished Frank H. Blodgett, the lessee of the residence, in order to get a claim on the rental. Fred C. Burpee appeared for McVicar Bros. and Gen. J. B. Doe for Mrs. Brittain. The case will be appealed.

The suit was not brought against Mr. Blodgett, and he was in no way interested, except that the money in his hands had been tied up by the garnishes proceedings.

LATE HAPPENINGS AT LA PRAIRIE

Grange Hall Struck By Lightning Sunday Morning.

La Prairie, Sept. 25—The Grange hall was struck by lightning at an early hour Sunday morning, doing considerable damage to the interior and furnishings. It is said that T. A. Read has sent his farm to Ham Raymond and will sell his fine bred stock at auction in the near future. We are to have another new iron bridge, soon. Listen to the wedding bells. It is rumored that one of our prominent young farmers secured a license last Saturday. House cleaning time is again at hand. Jefferson fair this week. Mrs. Bessie Van Gilder is visiting her sister, Mrs. Gene Smith. Sunday was a day of rain as well as rest. Lou Van Gilder of Spencer, Iowa, is shaking hands with his many friends and relatives. A company composed of six couples from this town hired Nelson's bus and drove out to the Elkhorn fair. Several other delegations were also in attendance. Mrs. Will Kapke and two children of Burt, Iowa, are visiting at her father's home. The first meeting of the singing class will be held at Grange hall next Saturday evening. Everyone interested in this work is invited to be present. Miss Florence Thomas is visiting. Mrs. Joe Mahoney at Belvidere. There were no Sunday school services at the hall last Sunday on account of the rain. It is evident that Brown's shoe store has its share of trade from this place as every farmer has one of their fine egg cases and some have two.

Janesville. Man Invests $11,500 More—Taking Advantage of the Prices Which Real Estate Men Say Will Not Go Lower—Adds $100,000 This Year to Northern Possessions.

A. P. Lovejoy of this city, has again increased his holdings in West Superior, Wis., to the extent of $11,500, having just closed two purchases of business property there through the Rogers-Ruger company. Mr. Lovejoy is evidently favorably impressed with the future for the "Mushroom" City, as he has increased his possessions there nearly $100,000 this year.

The West Superior Telegram in publishing the account of Mr. Lovejoy's recent purchase, among other things says:

"The Fabian Hotel and two lots on the corner of Broadway and Banks were bought by A. P. Lovejoy of Janesville, Wis., from the owner, P. R. Hogan, the consideration being $6000 cash. An other deal was the purchase of the German lot adjoining the Agen block on the south and containing a frame building. The price paid for this was $5,500.

"Mr. Lovejoy is now the heaviest single property owner in the city, he having recently purchased a great deal of property, especially on Tower avenue. He has been taking advantage of the prices which real estate men say will not go lower, and has this year added about $100,000 worth of property to what he owns here. Mr. Lovejoy comes to Superior for a visit every summer, and when here the last time expressed much gratification at the way the town was picking up."

FORMER MONROE MAN SUED

Dr. Charles H. Lemon Made Defendant In a Peculiar Case.

Dr. Chas. H. Lemon, formerly of Monroe, now a practitioner in Milwaukee, has been made defendant in a peculiar suit for damages brought against him by Charles Pargoy for $2,000. The plaintiff says that he applied for a position as motorman on the street railroad and went to Dr. Lemon, one of the company's examining surgeons, for his examination. He says the latter declared he was unfitted for the position and adds that four other physicians declared him sound. The damages he claims as compensation for a steady position he gave up in expectation of securing the place, being worth $40 a month to him. Dr. Lemon says that he had merely followed the instructions of his company in the examination and found that under its rules the applicant was not qualified.

DEMISE OF MRS. DR. CARY

Prominent Whitewater Lady Passed Away Last Thursday.

Whitewater Register: Last Thursday morning when it was told on the street that Mrs. Dr. Cary was no more, to her friends, and none who knew her could be other than friends, the news came with a shock of grief and also to some degree a feeling of resignation and relief: grief because of the loss from among us of one so good and true, one whose life effort and influence was ever on the side of goodness and right living, and relief at the knowledge that death came to her as a welcome visitor to end the suffering that for many weary weeks had made life unenjoyable. The husband and one daughter, Florence, are left to mourn and miss her.

Frances Ella (Wood) Cary was born in Lima, Rock county, Wis., April 9, 1854. When about ten years of age her parents moved to Johnstown, where she made her home until April, 1879. August 23, 1878, she was married to Dr. E. L. Cary, who was at that time with Dr. Henry Palmer of Janesville, and in 1880, she, with her husband, came to make a home in Whitewater, where they have since resided. About six months ago she began to fail in health, but kept about her usual duties until July 1, at which time she was stricken with disease at the base of the brain, producing loss of sight of the right eye and paralysis of the left side of the face, which condition remained until death ended her suffering in the early morning of September 14, 1899. The skill of the best physicians availed nothing to stay the fatal malady. The funeral was held at the residence Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the burial at Johnstown cemetery near the old home. Rev. E. C. Barnard conducted the services, consisting of reading of selections of passages of scripture, a poem, and prayer, in accordance with her wish.

Those who have known Mrs. Cary know how dearly she loved her home. She was a home maker. Every room bore marks of her loving and careful planning and doing. Most cordial and cheerful was her welcome always to her friends and neighbors. This thought is beautifully expressed in the following poem, which was read at the funeral as expressing this characteristic and admirable quality of her character:

Again her doorway opened,
And her house is garnished and sweet;
But she silently waits for our coming,
And we enter with silent feet.

A little within she is waiting;
Not where she has met us before,
For over the pleasant threshold
She is only to cross once more.

The smile on her face is quiet,
And a lily is on her breast;
Her hands are folded together,
And the word on her lips is "rest."

And yet it looks like a welcome,
For her work is compassed and done;
All things are seemly and ready,
And her summer has just begun.

It is we who may not cross o'er;
Only with song and prayer,
A little way into the glory
We may reach as we leave her there.

But we cannot think of her idle,
She must be a home-maker still;
God giveth that work to the angels
Who fulfill the task fulfill.

And somewhere yet in the billows
Of the country that hath no pain
She will watch in her beautiful doorway
To bid us welcome again.

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSON, VA., Dec. 21.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

COL. FALK ON GEN. ALGER

Colonel Otto Falk of Milwaukee, one of the best known democrats in Wisconsin, has written a letter for The Milwaukee Journal in which he defends ex-Secretary of War Alger against the venomous attacks made upon him by both the people and the press. Colonel Falk served during the Spanish war as a lieutenant colonel and special inspector, U. S. V., and his duties made him familiar with the work of the war department. He is a man of strict integrity, and his high standing, personally, as well as his reputation as a soldier, adds to the conclusiveness of his statement. The following extracts are from his letter:

"In my belief the charges made against General Alger are many of them absurd; few, if any, of them at all founded. * * * No one will deny that these beef contracts were made with the very best firms in the United States; and when a man buys from the very best sources he is certainly doing all that could be expected of him individually. * * * Again, young and inexperienced soldiers sent home complaining letters to their families, and they completely misunderstanding the truth of the axiom that war, under any conditions, is hell, as Sherman said, nursed the belief that their boys were being ill-used, and thus aroused a fictitious feeling, which had no real grounds to rest upon. * * * General Alger, in my belief, met the manifold emergencies of his task in a wonderful manner. I do not in the least deny that many mistakes were made, but I think it remarkable that there were not many more. * * * If we look at the status of the army today, or even six months after war was declared, we find all grievances done away with. Our troops are better fed, better sheltered, better cared for when ill or wounded, as they are also better paid, than any other soldiers in the world. Our troop ships are regarded as models, our methods are considered truly remarkable. Thus in less than a year after the sudden and wholly unexpected demand made upon the country, we find things running with a smoothness that calls for universal admiration. * * * All in all I consider that any fair-minded person, viewing all the facts, soberly and not in the heat of the moment, but rather in the cooler afterglow of history, must admit that General Alger did his work not only well but much better than anyone had any right to expect under all the conditions and limitations."

Col. Falk's letter sets forth facts that are becoming more patent every day. As he says, it is useless to deny that mistakes were made, but on the whole, General Alger "met the manifold emergencies of his task in a wonderful manner." History has simply repeated itself in Gen. Alger's case, but "the truth is mighty and shall prevail."

Beloit Free Press—A movement is on foot among the railroad managers to abolish passes and all forms of free transportation. Not only are all railroad men to be barred, but everybody else, not excepting the influential shipper. The only exception will be employees traveling on business for their respective companies. The pass is to be eradicated in all parts of the United States. It is estimated that out of the entire number of railroad employees 200,000 are given annual passes over lines on which they are not directly associated. The abolition will add millions of dollars to the treasuries of the transportation companies.

Milwaukee Catholic Citizen—Collier's Weekly publishes a picture from a photograph taken by a correspondent in the Philippines, and not altered in any particular, representing a field telegraph station set up on the altar of Calocan church with wires attached to the tabernacle. "The officer standing back of the operator is a lieutenant and the one in front of the operator, with a cigarette, holds the rank of captain in the United States army." This, of course, would be, in times of peace, a desecration. But in times of war, such things happen. Read the history of the French campaigns in Italy in the Sixteenth century, and note what a Catholic army did to the churches.

Sockless Simpson was recently hissed off the stage for saying, in a lecture, that he would "rather be with Aguinaldo than Otis." The people were about to mob the barefooted statesman, but like his friend, the Tagal leader, he escaped by running. Simpson should not be taken seriously. He is simply the freak of an "ou" year, and it makes no difference what he says.

Jerry Simpson, who became famous solely because of the fact that he wore no socks, now wears silk ones, and is therefore a closed incident. The people have no time for bunion statesmen.

If the Milwaukee Journal wants to retain its reputation, it should go slow in establishing a department for transmitting news messages by means of carrier doves. Newspaper readers will not stand for "pigeon English" these days.

The British statesmen at Cape Town are likely to be compelled to travel over some rough Rhodes before they see the end of the present difficulty.

A CUP FOR DEWEY.

Fifty Thousand
Americans Gave a Dime Each For It.

Here is a picture of the loving cup which is to be presented to Admiral Dewey on his return from Manila.

It will be made of 50,000 silver dimes which have been contributed by patriotic Americans. Only one dime has been accepted from each individual.

The idea of this form of tribute has been taken up and carried on to success with the most intense enthusiasm in every section of the country. Not only have dimes been received from Americans in the United States, but from the most remote parts of the world, wherever our citizens were traveling, either for business or pleasure, came dimes for the loving cup, accompanied by enthusiastic tributes of praise for the admiral himself.

Every walk in life has its tribute of dimes in the loving cup. Employer and employees of factories, offices and warehouses, from the least to the greatest, have sent their dimes. A silver stream has poured in daily from a beginning of one bright dime. One of the most remarkable features in the history of the loving cup is the intense love and admiration Admiral Dewey seems to have aroused in the hearts of the children. They have sent their dimes accompanied by letters expressing unbounded admiration for the "hero of Manila" and have added their pictures to illustrate this very charming part of an interesting volume that will add to the value of the loving cup.

Magnetic Healing

All Diseases Yield to the Magnetic Powers of Prof. Dennis—Testimonial from Homer.

This is to certify that Mrs. E. F. Fulkner suffered a severe paralytic shock on June 17, 1899. Consulted two of the leading physicians of Janesville, one of whom prescribed for me at the same time, giving me no hope of permanent benefit, saying that with perfect rest and quiet I might get better. After three weeks' treatment with no result, but failing steadily, my attention was called to the wonderful magnetic power of Prof. Dennis, who, after the first treatment, inspired me with such faith that I gave up all medicine and continued his treatment and on the 20th of August, 1899, am as well as ever in my life. After the paralysis had been overcome, a stomach trouble developed, which was very severe, vomiting at one time a pint of blood, which left me in a very weak nervous condition, but which readily yielded to his treatment, and today I should very likely have been hopeless only for taking this terrible disease in time and in the right way.

NEW ST. PAUL LINE TO BOWER CITY

JANESVILLE WOULD BE ON "THROUGH ROUTE."

President Miller, At the Annual Meeting Announces That the Road From Libertyville, Ill., Will Come to This City—Two Plans Under Consideration.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway, held in Milwaukee Saturday, President Roswell Miller stated that the line from Libertyville, Ill., to Janesville, would be built. The Chicago Tribune quotes him as follows:

"We are planning no new lines in the north as yet. The extension of the Star Lake line to La Crosse or some other point on Lake Superior has not been thought of as a definite matter. The Copper Range railway, which is entirely a separate corporation, is building out of Houghton and will connect with our line and act as a feeder for us, but we are not building it. The line from St. Paul to Superior and Duluth is being surveyed. The line that we are building from Libertyville west is planned to tap the lake regions of the Fox River Valley and will be extended to Janesville and Milton Junction, so as to make a short line to points on the Prairie du Chien division. Next year you may see a more extensive building program by all of the roads, but of that I cannot talk at this time."

Come Via Lake Geneva.
The line will be built, it is said, via Lake Geneva, Delavan lake and Darien. Two methods of reaching Janesville are said to be under consideration. One contemplates building eastward from the crossing north of this city, while the other would connect with the present line two or three miles below Janesville on the Afton line. In either case, the company would use the present line through Janesville, and there would be no new lines necessary within the city limits. Nothing has been definitely decided upon, however, although the routes mentioned are supposed to be well thought of.

This line would shorten the distance to Chicago about 100 miles, and would practically place Janesville on the "through line" between Chicago and St. Paul.

The project is therefore of great importance to Janesville, and it is to be hoped that it will not be abandoned. In view of President Miller's declaration, however, it would appear that the line is practically assured.

Small Lines Purchased.
The stockholders authorized the purchase of the various small lines and parts of lines in Illinois that have been operated for from twenty to forty years under 999 year leases so they might be become an integral part of the corporation. These roads are the Central Illinois and Wisconsin road, running from Rockton to Rockford, Ill.; the Chicago and Pacific railroad, running from Chicago to Kirtland, Ill.; the Chicago, Evanston and Lake Superior railroad, running from the Wisconsin state line to Chicago, and a part of the Chicago division; the Western Union railroad, that runs from Racine to Port Byron Junction, Ill.; and from Elkhorn to Eagle, Wis.; and the Cook, Lake and McHenry Counties railroad, that is now being built from Libertyville, Ill., to Spring Grove, Ill.

From Operator to President.
A. J. Earling was elected president to succeed Mr. Miller. Mr. Earling is the third president the company has had in nearly forty consecutive years of its existence, and in the history of the old Milwaukee and St. Paul railway company, the parent of the present organization. The first was Alexander Mitchell and the second Roswell Miller. Mr. Earling was born in Richfield, Wis., and is in his fifty-first year. At the age of 17, after securing a common school education, he left home and went to Watertown, where he learned telegraphy and then began his railroad career as night operator at Milton Junction. Soon he attracted the attention of the St. Paul officials and his advancement thereafter, as indicated in the foregoing, was rapid. When Mr. Miller, in 1890, was elected to the presidency of the road, Mr. Earling was made general manager. Then later he was made second vice president, which position he held until yesterday. Mr. Earling came to Chicago shortly after being elected general manager, when the road moved its general offices to this city, and he has since lived here.

The retiring president, Mr. Miller, went with the St. Paul road in 1883, as assistant general manager. Two years later he was elected general manager and in 1887 president.

HOYT'S COMEDY COMPANY

Matinee and Evening Performance in Janesville October 7

Charles Hoyt, the most prolific of modern playwrights, has furnished the music loving public with many a clever satire and entertaining picture of characters in every day life, but in his latest comedy success, "A Stranger in New York," which comes to Janesville Saturday, Oct. 7, for matinee and evening performance, at Myers Grand Opera House, it is said that for downright fun and clean entertainment it is far ahead of anything in its class. As a success, it has already eclipsed the famous record of his well known "A Trip to China-town." The cast is announced, the best ever seen in a Hoyt farce. It is headed by Paul T. Nicholson, Jr., and includes all the best artists in the employ of Messrs. Hoyt & McKee.

For the Fall Festival at Chicago, the C. M. & St. P. Ry. will sell excursion tickets October 2 to 12 inclusive, good to return October 14 at $3.65 for the round trip.

AWFUL ACCIDENT ON NORTHWESTERN ROAD

ONE MAN KILLED OUTRIGHT AND ANOTHER INJURED.

Train Which Left This City Yesterday Morning Bearing the Members of the "High Roller" Company, Runs Into a Hand Car—Dr. E. F. Woods Called.

A special train on the Chicago & Northwestern railway, which left this city yesterday morning, bearing the members of the "High Roller" company, ran into a hand car near Jefferson, killing one man outright and injuring another so badly that it is thought he cannot live. The train left here at 5:30 a. m., and consisted of a combination coach and baggage car, and was in charge of Conductor James Niland of this city, and Engineer Gail of Oshkosh. When near Jefferson they met a hand car bearing James Anderson, a section foreman, and William Smith, a section hand. A heavy fog overhung the track at the time, which prevented the engineer from seeing the men until too late to stop. The pilot of the engine struck the hand car with terrible force, throwing the men to the ground one on each side of the track and how they received such severe cuts and bruises is a mystery, as neither was thrown under the engine.

Anderson was instantly killed, while Smith received such terrible injuries that his recovery is doubtful. He is still unconscious and the company's surgeon, Dr. E. F. Woods of this city, who was telegraphed for, found that he was suffering from "contusion of the brain" and that he had probably been internally injured.

The men were both residents of Johnsons Creek, a village about six miles north of Jefferson. Both were married, Anderson having four children, Smith seven. At the time of Anderson's death Mrs. Anderson was visiting her brother at Neillsville. She was taken to Jefferson yesterday by a special train and on the same train was the remains of her husband.

A peculiar thing about the accident was that the dead man's watch had stopped at 7:35 o'clock, the exact time he was killed. The train crew are held blameless for the accident, as it was wholly the fault of the unfortunate men who were struck, as they had no business on the track at the time the special was expected.

The theatrical company on board the train played in this city Friday and Saturday nights, and were on their way to Jefferson Junction to make connections with the early train for Milwaukee.

FEW FATALITIES IN ARMY.

Only Twelve Deaths Last Week Among 30,000 Men.

LOWEST RATE EVER KNOWN.

The Record Is Unprecedented for a Large Body of Men in Tropical Service—Forces in Good Condition for the Coming Campaign.

Washington, Sept. 25.—The reports alleging that an appalling number of the American soldiers in the Philippines are sick are without foundation, the weekly death reports from Gen. Otis having shown a remarkably low rate of disease among the men. The report for the week just closed was received by telegraph from Gen. Otis Sunday. It contains only twelve names, all that were reported for the seven days ended Saturday, and one of the deaths was due to accidental drowning. With more than 30,000 soldiers in the field during a season marked by an almost unprecedented fall of rain, the small number of deaths has encouraged the war department officials to believe that the army in the Philippines will be in fine shape for the fall campaign. The death rate of the American army in the Philippines is the lowest, for so large a body of men, ever made in tropical service.

The alleged friction between the army and navy at Manila, has been happily ended, according to the understanding here. The first sign of a resumption of most cordial relations between the two branches of the military service has been the action of Major Gen. Otis in placing under control of the navy military operations in a large section of Cavite province, and this has been followed by the purely naval expedition to Subig bay, where a battalion of marines was landed to drive back the insurgents, who had attempted to fortify that splendid harbor.

If any serious trouble existed between the army and the navy, it came from the failure of the navy to secure a more active part in the operations around Manila, and it is known that there was some feeling displayed by naval men from the belief that an attempt was made to rob the navy of its proper credit in the assault on Iloilo. Everything is apparently running smoothly in the islands now, however, and naval men are very much gratified. No further friction is anticipated.

In view of the decision of Gen. Otis to let the navy 150k after most of Cavite province, Brig. Gen. Haywood, commandant of the marine corps, has recommended to the navy department that the garrison of marines at the Cavite naval station be increased by another battalion. This will give a force of about 1,000 marines. With the authority to enlist 6,000 men, granted by the naval personnel act, there will be plenty of marines to send to the Philippines, and, if circumstances demand, the force at Cavite will be still further augmented.

Gen. Otis called the war department further particulars regarding the Chinese whom he had prevented landing at Manila, which action caused a protest from the Chinese government. As the cablegram contained some matters which were necessary to refer to the state department, its text was not given out. It was stated, however, that as a result of Gen. Otis' investigation it was probable that a portion of the detained Chinese would be permitted to land.

AMERICAN GUNBOAT IS LOST.

Crew of the Urdaneta Falls Into a Rebel Ambush and Is Captured.

Manila, Sept. 25.—The gunboat Urdaneta, belonging to the mosquito fleet, which has been patrolling the shore on the north of Manila bay, had not been heard of for ten days. As her coal supply was by this time necessarily exhausted, a search for her was made.

Natives, who were interrogated by Lieut. Franklin, in command of the gunboat Laguna de Bay, told that officer that the Urdaneta had been sighted near the town of Orani Saturday. The crew landed to take possession, whereupon they were seized by a large body of natives, who had set a trap for them.

The prisoners were removed to Porac and the gunboat was looted and scuttled. The gunboats Petrel, Callao and Basco are now searching for the sunken vessel.

McKinley in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 25.—Henry C. Payne, who has had considerable correspondence with President McKinley concerning the latter's western trip, says there is now some prospect that the president would reach Milwaukee early in the morning of Oct. 11 and remain until the morning of the next day. It is proposed to make the trip from Milwaukee to St. Paul during daylight, which will give the people along the line an opportunity to greet the president.

St. Paul Schools to Close.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 25.—Attorney General Douglas has made public an opinion that the 1½ mill tax passed by the last legislature for the relief of the St. Paul schools is unconstitutional because it is special legislation. The schools of the city, attended by nearly 30,000 children, will therefore be obliged to close about April 1, when the regular school appropriation runs out.

Mining Operations Resumed.

Huntington, W. Va., Sept. 25.—The large Dingess coal mines, that have been idle for two years, resumed operations today.

TRADE IN PLAGUE GERMS.

Are Exported to All Parts of the World for Study.

There is a phase of the situation which the imaginative or nervous mind will readily assume to be the worst of all—at least in the threat it carries of danger to the world at large. I refer to the exporting of plague germs to every corner of Christendom by the doctors and medical students who have gone to India, first from Japan, and since from every part of Europe and America, to study the epidemic. For three years this scattering of these germs has gone on, and as I left India the Bombay Gazette declared that it still continues. "We believe we are right," the editor writes, "in stating that perhaps none of the special medical officers who has left Bombay omitted to carry away with him a tube of microbes to enable him to study the plague." There is a by-law which forbids the carrying of matches or explosives on board steamers, and yet the carrying of tons of gunpowder or dynamite is not so dangerous as the tiny tube of cultures carried by an irresponsible medico. The possibilities of a little phial of microbes are incalculable. They might decimate the population of a great city. The plea of the editor is that the carrying of plague cultures be made a criminal offense. One would imagine, that though the Indian officials may show no concern at the loss of that of which they already have too much, other governments, at whose people the danger is aimed, may realize the enormity of the crime.—Harper's Weekly.

It is said that coffee was discovered by a shepherd, who noticed the enlivening effect upon the flock after they had been browsing on the beans. It is said that the French were the first to roast it.

MENU FOR MONDAY.

LUNCHEON.
Escalope Potatoes, Broiled Tomatoes, Cheese Cakes, Tea, Fruit.

DINNER.
Cream of Potato Soup, Irish Stew, Potatoes, Spinach, Corn, Cabbage Salad, Huckleberry Pudding.

ITALIAN FRIED CHICKEN.—Take one or two young chickens, prepare them for frying and parboil the pieces 15 minutes in a cooking water of chicken soup and aromatic herbs, with a little raw ham for seasoning. Drain the chicken, reduce the liquid and chicken it with flour and cook five minutes. Pour this on two eggs beaten in a bowl. Stir over the fire to boiling point, add the juice of half a lemon and press it through a napkin. Trim the pieces of chicken neatly. Dip them in the sauce and put them in a slightly oiled pan to fry. Then roll in bread crumbs, immerse in hot oil or fat, and roll again in crumbs mixed with one-third the quantity of grated Parmesan cheese. Then put on a wire lining (of the frying pan) to immerse in boiling oil or fat. Drain and dish up on a folded napkin with Duxelles sauce. This is made by putting in a saucepan a pint of well reduced sauce with a glass of white wine and two table-spoons of beef extract, two table-spoons of mushrooms, the same of beef tongue and a teaspoon of chopped parsley, all mixed into the sauce without cooking.

A Giant and Still Growing.

Among the hospital patients of Dr. Lucas Championniere is a man seven feet four inches in height. He is 27 years old, and is still growing. He takes after his father, who was seven feet eight, whereas his mother was of short stature. At the age of 18 he was a youth below middle height, but after an illness he grew four inches in a few days. A second illness produced another rapid increase of his height. After this he had several successive attacks of a debilitating complaint. On recovery he invariably found he had grown several inches, till when at 21 he went to serve in the army he had reached seven feet. He was the youngest of twelve children, and fortunately for them is the tallest of them all by a foot or so.

Rapid Spread of the Telephone.

The telephone is only about a quarter of a century old, but there are already over 300,000 public and private connections in the world. Of these the United States have more than half—773,000. Germany, which comes next, has only 150,000; Great Britain only 70,000. Switzerland has more than France, which is slow to adopt the telephone.

Average Wages of Maine Mill Hands.
The average weekly wages of the men employed in the cotton mills of Maine are $7.88, of the women $5.60, and of the children $2.73.

Old Underoof Rye is especially approved. It calls up to memory tripping feet, flashing eyes, mesmeric spells of youth and beauty and happy hours. It has taken over 30 years' experience in the art of blending whiskey to market Old Underoof. Well has it been said, "all the world loves a winner." With equal terseness it may be affirmed all the world admires a fine whiskey. Hence the wide renown and ever growing popularity of Old Underoof. ## Crippled by Rheumatism.

Those who have Rheumatism find themselves growing steadily worse all the while. One reason of this is that the remedies prescribed by the doctors contain mercury and potash, which ultimately intensify the disease by causing the joints to swell and stiffen, producing a severe aching of the bones. S. S. S. has been curing Rheumatism for twenty years—even the worst cases which seemed almost incurable.

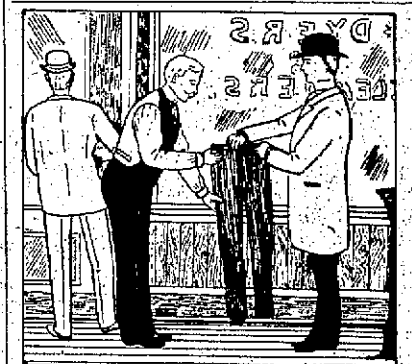

Capt. O. E. Hughes, the popular railroad conductor, of Columbia, S. C., had an experience with Rheumatism which convinced him that there is only one cure for that painful disease. He says: "I was a great sufferer from muscular Rheumatism for two years. I could get no permanent relief from any medicine prescribed by my physician. I took about a dozen bottles of your S. S. S. and now I am as well as I ever was in my life. I am sure that your medicine cured me, and I would recommend it to any one suffering from any blood disease."

Everybody knows that Rheumatism is a diseased state of the blood, and only a blood remedy is the only proper treatment, but a remedy containing potash and mercury only aggravates the trouble.

S. S. S. For The Blood

being Purely Vegetable, goes direct to the very cause of the disease and a permanent cure always results. It is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no potash, mercury or other dangerous minerals.
